

Formed.org – Check it out

Week Five of a Six Part Offering

We've featured some of the vital programs on Formed.org in the past weeks as well as samplings of entertainment for your family. Besides the videos available to motivate the viewer to grow in the faith there are books which can be downloaded to your mobile device. Formed.org lets you download the app you need to use on your Kindle, Android, Nook or iPhone device. You can capture a whole host of selections which allow you to access solid Catholic content to view whenever you like.

Some recommended selections are: Fulton Sheen's "The World's First Love", James Hitchcock's "History of the Catholic Church", Pope Benedict XVI's "The Transforming Power of Faith", and Ruth Pakaluk's "The Appalling Strangeness of the Mercy of God". These are just a few of the titles.

Also, there are audio only presentations which you can listen to while driving or doing chores around the house. The subjects feature on audio include: conversion stories, adult faith formation, prayer and spirituality, young adult, and more.

These free resources are available to all. Simply go to www.formed.org, insert our parish code (DPR7NN), sign up and enjoy.
